

Theatre of Spontaneity

Past, Present & Future are Intertwined

Presenter
Lyndon Medina

Sunday 29 October 2017
at 6.00 pm. for 6.30 start – 8.30 finish

Past, present & future are intertwined
Unfinished business creates that bind
Though time intends to heal all wounds
'Here and now' has come not a moment too soon

Jacob Levy Moreno created the first Theatre of Spontaneity (ToS) early in the last century to explore through enactment, connection, moments of interest, social themes and current events occurring in the Austrian community and society. Each ToS presenter will work with material from the group, so just bring yourself to this unique and refreshing event.

Come along to our Theatre of Spontaneity to explore new roles, share your stories, journeys and experiences.

RSVP by Friday, 27 October 2017 to Gavin O'Loughlin 0403 597 685

The Location is 1/10-12 Adolph St. Cremorne, Victoria

At the door: $15.00 MPS members/$20.00 non-members

Light refreshments provided

All welcome!