

Come to the Table (Haere Mai ki te Tepu)

Director: Katrina Gaskin

Sunday: 15 April from 10am – 5.30pm

When you consider your own times of gathering around a table, what springs to mind? From moments of routine to celebration, encounters with tables happen socially, with family and at work. This experiential workshop encourages exploration and an opportunity to playfully expand upon the roles we bring to our tables in relation to the people we meet with.

Fees: $100.00 (MPS members) $150.00 (non-members). Deposit $50.00 by 23 Mar. Applications and enquiries to be made directly to Katrina Gaskin: 0455 254 801

Venue: PIM, Melbourne, Australia

Katrina Gaskin is a psychodramatist (TEP), counsellor and supervisor working in private practice in Melbourne. She is the Co-Founder of the Psychodrama Institute of Aotearoa (PIA) and a founding member of MPS and the ABP.
