Strengthening Families with Psychodrama
(Whakapiripiri Nga Whanau i Psychodrama Series)

Saturday & Sunday 22 & 23 February 2020 – 9.30 am-5 pm
61 Porter St. Prahran, Melbourne

SATURDAY 22 February:

Strengthening Families with Psychodrama with Lethe Gaskin

This is a day for entering the world of work with families. This experiential workshop brings psychodrama to family work. It's a day to enliven ourselves as family members, therapists, teachers, counsellors, support persons and other family workers. It will be helpful to those seeking to assist, strengthen, gain understanding, enjoy, and more fully encounter Family.

SUNDAY 23 February:

He, She and Me: New Families with Sue Daniel

New families; different gender, same gender, children from different birth Mothers, no children, dogs and cats and other animals, families that are not of blood but rather of like-mindedness or simply from the neighbourhood, or meetings on the road. What binds us all is love, warmth, acceptance and loyalty, being known and feeling at home...our tribe! Let’s share our stories in action and celebrate.

The Leaders: Both Sue Daniel and Lethe Gaskin are Psychodramatists, Trainer, Educator and Practitioners (TEP’s), with a wealth of experience in teaching and practice across cultures.

Fees: for one day $AUD150.00, fee for 2 days $220.00 (MPS/PIM 10 % discount)
For all enquiries and enrolments please call 0417 586 791 or email pim@netspace.net.au

This psychodrama series is hosted by the Psychodrama Institute of Melbourne and Psychodrama i Aotearoa
http://psychodrama-institute-melbourne.com