

4-Day International Psychodrama Intensive:

‘Our Precious Relationships’

Melbourne, Australia

11-14 October 2024 from 10am-5.30pm each day

Director: Sue Daniel

As humans we are born into a group. Without our groups we would not survive. We learn about the world and each other through our connections and interactions with others. These relationships change over time, people come and go. Who has shaped us, who is significant in our life and do we value them?

In this 4-Day experiential workshop, we will have the opportunity to meet in true psychodramatic encounters. Participants can expect to explore their significant relationships, find ways of enhancing their connections with each other, or identify any obstacles that prevent them from achieving the kind of relationships they want in their work and life.

Methods include sociometry, sociodrama, role training and psychodrama. There are 8 x 3-hour sessions over the four days, with breaks for refreshments and lunch each day. All sessions need to be attended for a full learning experience.

The workshop is open to practitioners, trainees, group leaders and trainers across a range of disciplines, including the health and education fields.

Our venue is The Living Centre, 16 Trinity Place, East Melbourne. It is very close to the Fitzroy Gardens, where participants may walk or rest and enjoy the nature. There are a variety of eating places close to the venue including a café in the middle of the Gardens.

Dates: Friday – Monday, 11-14 October from 10am – 5.30pm.

Fees: $675.00 (MPS members $575.00, PIM Trainees $475.00)

(A deposit of $50.00 is required on application with the balance due and payable by 1 October.)
